NOTE.

SUBJECT.:-- Repairs to the Anicut built across the Sathiyur stream in the Ayyur village of the Nelakotai Taluk. -- belonging to the Sri Vyasaraya Mutt.

The Government Agent of the Sri Vyasaraya Matt reports that the jungle stream locally called the Sathiyur river running through the village of Ayyur, where a dam has been constructed, has in the course of its erratic running caused a borrow pit 30 feet by 5 feet below the dam and that the stones of the apron wall are hanging loose and that if serious damage to the dam has to be averted, urgent repairs are necessary. He has accordingly submitted an estimate for Rs. 104-6-0 on account of the above and states further that in view of the approaching floods, he has asked the lessee Mr. Subba Naidu to undertake the work in anticipation of sanction and finish it early.

2. In the circumstances, I recommend that the action taken by the Agent may be approved and the enclosed estimate for Rs. 104-6-0 sanctioned, the charge being met

Note dated 15th August 1921 from the Muzrai Superintendent in Mysore, submitting an estimate for the execution of repairs to the anicut built across the Sathiyur stream in the Ayyur Village of the Pelakotai Taluk belonging to Sri Vyasaravaswami Matt.

Order No 1213-14 Revenue + Coop. Dept. / Ginjee 124-21-2 dt 26.8.21.

The Government Agent of Sri Vyasaraya-swami Matt has reported to the Muzrai Superintendent that the jungle stream locally called the Sathiyur river running through the village of Ayyur, where a dam has been constructed, had, in the course of its erratic running, caused a burrow pit 30 feet by 3 feet below the dam, and that the stones of the apron wall had become loose and that, if serious damage to the dam should be averted, urgent repairs were necessary. He has also submitted an estimate for Rs. 104-6-0 on account of the above work, and, in view of the approaching floods, has permitted the lessee, in anticipation of sanction, to undertake the work. The Muzrai Superintendent recommends approval of the action taken by the Government Agent, and requests sanction to the estimate referred to.
